

2 x Floor stand for Era 100

This pair of Flexson Floor Stands are built to hold your Sonos Era 100 speakers at the ideal listening height. When upright, these stands have room to accommodate both the power and network cable if required, with neat routing for both at the base.

Additionally, this pair of Flexson Floor Stands for the Sonos Era 100 come with a power extension cable included, so you can position your speakers where you want them, even if that's not directly near a mains power supply. Like all Flexson products, this pair of Floor Stands for the Sonos Era 100 are precision engineered from steel and aluminium, and are quick and easy to assemble.

- Two stands included to hold two Sonos speakers
- Built at optimum listening height
- Quick and easy assembly
- Designed to colour match your Sonos speakers
- Integrated cable track for neat cable management
- Weighted base for enhanced stability
- Crafted specifically to support the Sonos Era 100 speaker
- Includes power extension cable - gives you extra reach to mains plug sockets
